

Rob's Recommendations

Choosing wines for Longbow's list was tough, but I'm excited to recommend a few personal favourites. These selections are more than just wines; they're stories of the vineyards and passion of the winemakers I've known for years. Enjoy these top picks for their exceptional value and quality.

Cheers! Rob

Ferghettina Franciacorta Brut

Italy

Bottle £41.95

This is a perfect aperitif from a place close to my heart. Bright white flower and citrus aromas give way to brioche, crisp apple and citrus on the palate, with lovely weight and texture. A fine, persistent mousse keeps things lively and polished, making it both effortlessly drinkable and quietly complex. It's a sparkling wine that feels special without trying too hard.

Ontañón, Ripa Dorii Verdejo

Spain

175ml £9.55

From a less renowned part of Spain, this amazing white wine which Rob first tasted on a trip last year. One sip and he had to have it on his list. Why not try it by the glass?

250ml £12.95

Bottle £35.95

Wild House Rosé

South Africa

Bottle £29.45

Bright, juicy and effortlessly refreshing, this brilliant wine bursts with vibrant redcurrant and crushed red-fruit flavours, naturally fermented for a fresh, tangy lift. Light and zesty with enough texture to keep things interesting, it's dangerously easy to drink chilled. Perfect with grilled fish or chicken, or simply on its own. It's a total crowd-pleaser.

Montesor Urban Park Appassimento

Veneto Italy

Bottle £39.95

Rich, warm and full of character, this instantly likeable red bursts with bright berry and black-cherry aromas with a hint of spice. Fresh cherry and ripe bramble fruit are enriched by the Appassimento drying process and oak ageing, creating supple tannins and a delicate sweetness. Generous, flavour-packed and just a little indulgent.
